Cologne City Forest (Stadtwald)

Cologne City Forest surrounds the outer rim of the Cologne downtown, effectively determining its urban area. It faced repeated threats of development, but citizens managed to protect it. With numerous trees, birds, open green areas and promenade courses, it is a popular spot for walking, relaxing and gathering. The forest also blocks winds, making the downtown climate more comfortable.

Convenient tram/bus lines and nearby stops are shown.